

Let us Experience His Forgiveness

Why are we here tonight in His Presence on Yom Kippur? Because we seek forgiveness for our Nation (both for the US and for Israel) so we must ourselves practice releasing our debtors so that Adonai can release us as the firstfruits of repentance for our nation – it must always begin with us!

Adonai commanded us to consider our ways and repent in last week's Parashat Vayelech. This is serious and it involved the entire nation as they stood in front of the River Jordan. The Promised Land was on the other side, and they were about to enter into it. As a congregation, we are also standing today in front of our Promised Land (our future). It is time that we do what our ancestors practiced and face the reality of our shortcomings and our transgressions/sins. I challenge us as a congregation to get our affairs right with one another individually and as a congregation to be: Chazak! (Be courageous!)

How important is repentance in Judaism? According to Jewish thought: "Without the possibility of repentance, the world could not exist, because – as our common experience makes all too clear – man stumbles more than he strides. If there were no possibility of wiping the slate clean, man could have no hope of rising above his frequent sins. They would always remain to condemn him, never allowing him to escape inevitability of judgment and punishment. For this reason, T'Shuvah had to be created before the universe, for Yah Adonai Our Elohim would not create a world that was doomed from its inception" Indeed we read in Revelation: "8All who dwell on the earth shall worship him – everyone whose name has not been written from the foundation of the world in the Book of Life of the Lamb who was slain" (Revelation 13:8).

In Jewish understanding the possibility of repentance always exists – in fact, it must exist. So Yah Adonai has been waiting from Elul 1 to the end of Tishri 9 – anxiously and expectantly, as it were – for His chosen people (and Believers also) to return to His embrace. He is more responsive at this time, He assists those groping for His closeness, and He regards our failure to respond to this opportunity as a transgression of an uncommon magnitude. Like Wisdom, Repentance was with Him in the beginning.

There is probably no greater suffering in life than the pain of being wronged by a brother/sister (biological or in the Lord). This kind of suffering can be Yah Adonai's reminder to us that we have indeed violated His ways: "71It is good for me that I was afflicted (humbled), so that I may learn Your decrees" (Ps. 119:71). Also, this suffering can be Yah Adonai's way to draw others to Himself: "18For Messiah once suffered for sins also – the righteous for the unrighteous – in order to bring you to God. He was put to death in the flesh, but made alive by the Ruach" 1 Peter 3:18). It is written in the Lord's Prayer that when another person offends us we must forgive them so that we can be forgiven by Yah Adonai/Abba Father: "12And forgive us our debts (trespasses) as (in the same manner) we also have forgiven our debtors (those who trespass against us.)" (Matt. 6:12). Yes we have all been offended and sinned against and like Him, we choose to forgive as we come to Him (sinners) seeking forgiveness.

Since Yah Adonai expects us to forgive, what is His kind of forgiveness? He is NOT expecting us to pardon our offenders because forgiveness is releasing an offender emotionally. Pardon requires an authority (like Him) who has jurisdiction over the matter to cancel out the consequences. We do have that kind of jurisdiction, but He does! Also recall that forgiveness is freeing Yah Adonai to reward us unexpectedly because His forgiveness sees an offender's needs and results in Yah Adonai's solution! Let us release our offenders and allow Him to do this great work in us!

Are you ready to experience His Forgiveness? I am! Chag Yom Kippur Tov!
